

Authors create words. Actors give them voice. Meet the actors responsible for bringing "Snip", and its remarkable characters, to life:

Giz Coughlin is a highly experienced regional theatre actress, appearing in countless productions ranging from Shakespeare to the Marx Brothers. Giz brings to Snip an array of character voices derived from the multitude of personalities she has assayed on the boards.

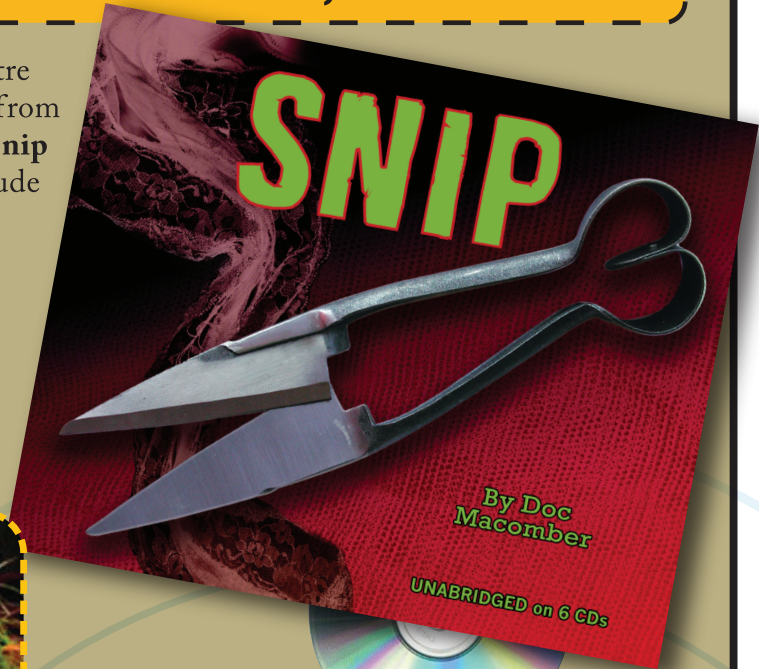

These include crazy, mean, pretending, brilliant, questionable, high, manipulative, needy, pregnant, Barbadian, coy, bitchy, protective, sweet, ditzzy, regal, pissed, put-upon, romantic, practical, male, drunk, religious, slutty, elitist, gay, mothering, victimized, stupid and dead (yeah, dead!).
